Lawyer Says Immigration Laws Cruel to Asians

BANFF, Alta.—A Young Toronto lawyer Wednesday charged [illegible] unjust shortcomings in [illegible]'s immigration policy [illegible] thousands of Asian-born Canadians to lonely lives.

Ross W. Davidson, 31, made the [illegible] before the civil liberties [illegible] of the Canadian Bar Association, meeting in convention here.

He also urged that the Immigration Act be changed to make it easier in future for Canadians of Asiatic origin to bring their families to Canada. He asked the civil liberties section to recommend that Parliament amend the act by stipulating what evidence is needed to prove the relationship between Asian-born Canadian citizens and the wives and children they wish to sponsor as immigrants.

Mr. Davidson's attack on the act prompted the civil liberties section to pass a resolution calling for the formation of a special committee to review immigration laws and procedures.

"Under the present act, some citizens are allowed to bring their families from Asia and others are refused permission to do so, without being told why they are being refused and with no hope of appealing the authorities' decision," Mr. Davidson said.

"I think such shortcomings of the act constitute a cruel and shocking injustice. Since there is no existing remedy, I feel the act should be changed. This is just another case of parliament shucking off its responsibility onto civil servants with autocratic powers."

He explained the Immigration Act permits the wife and children under 21 of an Asian-born Canadian citizen to be admitted as immigrants. But it does not state what evidence is required to establish the family relationship between the citizen and his kin.

To illustrate what suffering can be caused by this flaw in the act, Mr. Davidson told about a Chinese-Canadian client of his who has been trying vainly for one and a half years to bring to Toronto a 16-year-old son he has never seen. The client is C. P. Chow, 50 of Dundas St. E., a refrigeration mechanic.

The lawyer said Mr. Chow came to Canada alone in 1921. He was unable to bring his wife to this country under the immigration legislation of the time. So he returned to China to see her five times before the Communists took power in 1948. Then his wife died several years ago, leaving five children.

"In 1956, his second youngest son escaped from the Chinese mainland to Hong Kong," said Mr. Davidson. "Since then Mr. Chow has been trying to bring the boy to Canada, but he has been thwarted by the immigration authorities.

"Mr. Chow remarried in Toronto but has no children by this marriage. He and his second wife desperately want to bring that boy out here."

Mr. Davidson said Mr. Chow was first asked by immigration authorities to prove his son's identity with birth and school certificates, and he did. Then they asked him for additional proof in the form of a family portrait, including the boy. But that, the lawyer added, is impossible to obtain.

"Now it seems Mr. Chow is without hope," said Mr. Davidson. "He has been sending money to his son in Hong Kong all this time and does not know how much longer he can continue this drain on his resources.

"Yet I have been told by immigration authorities that other Chinese-Canadians have been granted permission to bring out their relations, but the authorities refused to tell me on what evidence these applications were based."

In an interview later, Mr. Davidson said:

"I think the whole history of immigration legislation concerning Asiatics is in marked contrast toward immigration policies toward Occidentals."

He said thousands of Chinese like Mr. Chow have lived lonely and celibate lives as a result.

"Early immigration legislation permitted only male Chinese to come to Canada," he said. "Most never married because they could not afford to return to China to find a wife, or did not wish to be separated by the Pacific Ocean from their wives if they did marry."

In a debate following Mr. Davidson's surprise speech, John R. Taylor, Progressive Conservative MP for Vancouver-Burrard, and the lawyer who won George Christian (man without a country) Hanna admission to Canada, suggested formation of the special committee to review immigration legislation and procedure.

He said if the Federal Government had adopted previous recommendations by the Canadian

Nisei Judge Named To LA Superior Court

LOS ANGELES.—Municipal Judge John F. Aiso, who became the first mainland Nisei to serve in judical capacity in September, 1953, was elevated to the office of Los Angeles County Superior Court on Aug. 28 by Gov. Goodwin J. Knight. Born in Burbank on Dec. 14, 1909, Judge Aiso completed studies at Brown U. and the Harvard Law School with further graduate courses in law at Chuo U., Tokyo, and the U. of Southern California law school. He practiced law in both New York City and Los Angeles from 1935 to 1952.

First Japanese Fiancee on $1,000 Bond to Arrive

On Sept. 11, the first Japanese fiancee to enter Canada under the new $1,000-bond regulation which came into effect in March, 1957, will arrive in Vancouver on the SS Hikawa Maru.

Twenty-seven-year-old Atsuko Watanabe of Kumamoto-ken has yet to see her husband-to-be, Susumu Kawaguchi of Ashcroft, B.C. The first '$1,000 fiancee' left Yokohama for Canada on Aug. 28.

K. Tsuyuki, NC's Japan correspondent, stated, "It is gratifying to know that the procedure for Japanese Canadians to call wives from Japan is getting simpler."

Atsuko's forthcoming marriage was initiated by a visit from Susumu's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Araki of Vancouver, early last year. The two principles started a correspondence and became engaged.

Unfortunately, Susumu was unable to go to Japan to claim his bride because of his job, so he took advantage of the new Canadian immigration regulation which allows entry of a fiancee on a bond of $1,000, with the provision that the marriage take place within 30 days of her arrival.

Atsuko was granted an entry permit in the latter part of June, went through the regular red tape—Japanese passport, X-Ray examination, visa, etc.—and left Japan Aug. 28 aboard the SS Hikawa Maru. The same ship is carrying Susumu's younger brother, Mamoru, and his wife and son.

K. Tsuyuki is now giving assistance to another two cases undergoing the same procedure.

Issei Gives Books To Cancer Library

Recently, the Canadian Cancer Society of Toronto issued a public request for books in different ethnic languages in order to establish a library for cancer patients.

Mr. Jutaro Tokunaga of Brantford, Ont., immediately contributed a 24-volume series of World Famous Mystery Stories and 62 volumes of World Famous Literature in Japanese, on noting the appeal which was printed in both sections of The New Canadian.

The Canadian Cancer Society, in a reply to The New Canadian for prompt cooperation and encouragement, stated that the new Ontario Cancer Institute on Sherbourne St., Toronto, which is to house the library for cancer patients, will not be open until November, but that the 24-volume series could be sent immediately.

Young JC Lass is Enrolled in School for High IQs

Among the 90 bright youngsters, aged eight to 12, enrolled in St. George's school in the Toronto suburb of Etobicoke, is Margaret Yamanaka.

Designed for clever students with IQs of 130 or over, the school, going into its third year, has attracted the interest of leaders in education across Canada.

The story and pictures of the school and its activities were covered in last week's Weekend Magazine.

Tokyo's Largest City Title is a Crown of Thorns

For the population increase that made it the world's biggest metropolis has outrun roofs, sewers and jobs, and Tokyo has become a city of strange contrasts.

At the end of World War II, the city had been almost three-fourths destroyed by American bombers. Rebuilding started fast.

The birthrate grew daily, and the constant arrival of peasants from the provinces swelled the city's population by a total of about a quarter of a million people each year.

Now the city is packed with more than 8,471,637 men, women and children, well above the populations of competing New York and London.

Tokyo's millions are packed in haphazard districts that have grown by concentric circles around the Imperial Palace and its circular moats.

They live in 23 wards, seven smaller cities, 20 towns and 48 villages that comprise metropolitan Tokyo. They lack adequate water sewage, trash and garbage collection and adequate employment for all.

There is hardly enough water to meet daily demands. There are frequent cutoffs during the hot, dry months.

The sewage system services only parts of six of the city's 23 wards. Present estimates are that installation of adequate facilities will take at least 30 years.

There is no standard rule for trash and garbage collection. In some places it is collected twice a day, in others once every ten days.

The city has a huge army of unemployed, whose existence keeps wages and the standard of living very low by Western standards.

Rapid and modern reconstruction after World War II have made the city a weird combination of traditional Japanese and up-to-date western architecture.

Then there are thousands of nightclubs and bars with garish neon lights. Some 7,000 coffee houses entertain guests with classical music. Geisha houses abound with an average evening for the first rate party costing about $600.

Nearby, thousands live in shacks and condemned houses. One group of about 8,000 live in the open and scavenge the city's refuse.

Not far away are the new, glass-walled buildings in the main downtown Marunouchi district, and scattered throughout the city are 17 stadiums, 267 parks and 10 city concert halls.

There are many plans for solving Tokyo's great problem of overcrowding. One three-year scheme calls for completing city transportation facilities and public housing. A 20-year dream plan calls for reorganization of the city with a "green belt" area extending around the city and an "outer ring" that would provide suburban living in some 20 small communities.

Meanwhile, in narrow winding streets filled with pot-holes, too speedy traffic is a constant hazard and nuisance. A whirlwind force of some 50,000 taxis adds heavily to a toll of two killed and 50 injured daily in the city.

Plans also call for completion of five subways, spiderwebbing the city, to be finished by 1972. Right now there are two subways in operation.

But it is highly questionable whether the plans, mostly now in the paper and dream stage, will catch up within the near future with the galloping increase in people.

Toronto Planner To Study Tokyo

Sailing for Yokohama early in October will be a young Toronto planner, A. H. Roberts, who aims to find out how they handle town planning in the world's largest city—Tokyo.

For more than two years a senior planner on the Toronto planning staff, Mr. Roberts hopes to have a chance to work at planning in Tokyo to see how the Japanese are going about the gigantic task of rebuilding the A-bombed cities.

He expects to be able to stay in Japan only a few months on a tourist's visa.

SPORTS

Toronto Edges Cleveland in Tennis Tourney

Ten doubles matches were played Aug. 31 at Earlscourt (seven men's and three ladies') between Toronto reps and Cleveland All-stars with the final outcome being a tie with five wins and five losses for both sides.

Toronto winners: Mickey Matsubayashi-Edzy Tsujimoto bt Mitch Hashiguchi-Shig Okada; Wes Hodgins-Fuz Fujiwara bt Darwin Chee-Herb Fuke; Tak Yamamoto-Ken Koyanagi bt Bill Ebihara-John Kawasaki; Ken Kameoka-George Sasaki bt Walt Yoshimitsu-Mo Funai; Pete Ito-Henry Irie bt Howard Sugiuchi-Steve Kawasaki.

* * *

Toronto nosed out Cleveland on Sunday in the second half of the Labor Day Tournament, but top ranking Frank Watanabe of Columbus quite easily defeated top local Nisei champ Tom Iwasaki. Mickey Matsubayashi, playing second spot for Toronto, gave Mitch Hashiguchi, leading Cleveland netter, a tough battle, and they ended up splitting at one set apiece.

Edzy Tsujimoto split with Shig Okada; Ike Matsuo lost in three sets to Shig Furuki, a veteran left-handed netter; Aki Koyanagi took the measure of another lefty Shig Hamagata; Toru Idenouye won from Roy Koyama; Frank Matsui lost to Darwin Chee (Chinese from B.W.I.) in three sets; Joe Fujino lost to Herb Fuke as did Ray Hodgins who lost to Bill Ebihara; Ken Koyanagi split with Walt Yoshimitsu; Paul Fujino split with John Kawasaki; Jim Morita split with Howard Sugiuchi.

In the ladies singles, Mary Ebata won a grueling three-setter from top Cleveland female netter Eva Hashiguchi. Chic Yanagizawa split with Mary Inouye; Sue Iwasaki won in two straight from Mary Yoshida; Agnes Tsujimoto won two sets from Mary Inouye; Hiro Umetsu won a set from Arlene Sumida.

The social end of the program was very successful. The banquet and social following was appreciated by all visiting netters and friends. They returned to Cleveland on Monday afternoon.

Tsujimotos Win Doubles Title From Iwasakis

Mr. and Mrs. Tsujimoto finally won the Bussei "A" mixed doubles title by upsetting favored Mr. and Mrs. Iwasaki 2-6, 6-2, 6-4.

The Tsujimotos took the consolation mixed in '53 and Edzy teamed with Mossy Mitsui to take the men's consolation doubles in '52, so after eight years of trying, it was the first "A" title for Agnes and also the first for Edzy, but he went one better than the missus by also copping this year's men's "A" doubles, so it seems that they must be improving a little each year.

NISEI OPEN

On Sunday, mixed doubles and all remaining matches in the Nisei Open are to be concluded. All contestants are requested to be on hand at Trinity by 8 a.m. in order to finish these matches. Men's singles finals once more will be between defending champ Tom Iwasaki and Mickey Matsubayashi. This will be the third meeting of the pair.

Vancouver IUBL Windup

VANCOUVER. — The favored CYO nine captured the George Sparling Trophy, emblematic of playoff champion of the IUBL for 1957. CYO were also the pennant winners. They took the measure of Boilermakers in the best of seven final series 4-1 with one contest being tied. Scores were 1-0, 9-6, 4-1 and 3-2 with the lone setback being a 9-2 count.

As the IUBL concludes another successful season, here are some individual leaders and stars: Hard-hitting Harry Robinson of Firemen led the league with a very respectable .422 batting average. Lanky Bob Lasko of CYO, a brilliant, fast-balling teenager, led the league in the pitching department with the best earned run average and an 8-1 record. He also won two games in the finals. League-leading batsman Harry Robinson was voted the Most Valuable Player to his team. Frank Kozak of Boilermakers, through the medium of fan votes, was chosen the Most Popular Player.

ともかくも火鉢を中にして、差し向いに坐ったお万が、そんなのん気なことを言い出す。

ふいの雨戸めで、一時はごたついた旅籠屋も、役人たちが引きあげてしまうとふたたびひっそりとふけてきて、夜気が何となく肌に冷えてくる。

「冗談いうなよ。おれたちの嫌疑はまだ晴れたわけじゃない。現に鼠と鼠賊がここを逃げ出しているんだからな」

「あたしはもう、そんなこと考えたくないわ」

どっちがつかまっても、きっと抱きこまれるにきまっている体なのだから、今のうち惚れた新平と思い切り燃えあがってみたいお万なのだ。

「姐御は考えたくなくても役人の方はちゃんと考えて今ごろ隣の本陣へわしの身許を洗いに行っている。それが帰ってきて、なんとか挨拶のあるまでは、宿屋でも酒などを持ってくるものか」

それどころか番頭や女中

いてもいけないの。あたしなんだか寒くなってきちまった」

うす寒そうにふところ手をして、お万は部屋の一方に敷きっ放しになっている寝床にばかり心ひかれる。

「姐御はまだ病後だからな、風邪をひくといかん。寝ていてもいいよ」

「ひとりじゃつまりやしない、あんたは寒くないの」

「別に寒くないな」

「薄情ねえ。どうしてあんたはそう冷たいんだろうなあ。あたしの気持、ちゃんとわかってるくせに」

お万はいい気になって、熱っぽたい目をからんでくる。

「そう昂奮しちゃいかんな」

「こうふん——？」なんのことさ、こうふんて」

「そう男と寝たがっちゃいかんということだ」

「ああ、お医者さんのほうじゃ、あれのことを昂奮ていうの」

「あは、は、別に医者のほうの言葉ってわけじゃないが、姐御は病後だから、あれのほうはもうしばらくつつしんだほうがいい。また頭が痛み出すとたいへんだからな」

「じゃあんた、あたしの病

「膝詰め談判ってわけだね」

「ええ、女の口から恥ずかしい。あたしはこれでも命がけなんだもの」

「そうかなあ。それがもし本当なら、まあ三年先を待って見ろ」

「あら、三年も待つんですか」

「姐御の惚れたは浮気だからな。明日になれば、どう気が変るかわからん」

「口惜しい、あたし、いつあたしが浮気でそんな——」

血相を変えて、火鉢を押しのけようとするのを、

「まあ、待て」

新平は笑いながら手で制して、

「わしはこれでも真面目な男だ。浮気でこうふんするほどお安くできてはおらん。姐御の惚れたが本当なら、三年ほれ続けてみろ。きっと男の返事をしてみせる」

と、あわれむような深い眼差しになる。

許婚呼寄第一號
來週晩香坡に到着

本年三月以來、日系カナダ人も日本から許婚婦人を呼寄せることが出來るようになつたが、この新規定によつて呼寄せられる許婚婦人が九月十一日晩香坡に到着する。次は本社東京支局の露木氏から來た知らせである。

【東京支局發】日系カナダ人と結婚した日本人のカナダ入國が順次實現になつていくのは喜ばしいことであるが、これはまた、その先驅を示した「許婚呼寄」の第一號が八月廿八日横濱出帆の氷川丸で、まだ見ぬ夫を求めてカナダに渡航した。

彼女ー渡邊アツ子さん（二十七歳、熊本縣下益城郡）がその人である。渡邊さんは結婚を前提として許婚者であるビーシー州アシクロフトの川口進氏の許に、見果てぬ憬れの夢を胸に抱いて、人生航路の旅路にいつたのである。

◇

◇

これによつて、ニユーカナデアンに既報された許婚者呼寄せは、今度の渡邊さんの渡航で實現したわけであるが、更に私（露木）の許には、同樣の渡航方法による手續き方について二人から依頼が來ている。

△そこで當圖書館係りにその旨傳ねると、まず探偵小說全集二十四冊だけ送つて貰い、スペースがあれば更に希望したいが、

ともかくわれわれの重要なる仕事にいち早く親切に應えて下さつたことはなんと力強いことでありましよう。今後ともよろしくお力添え下さるようお願い致します

という文面の返書がとどいた。徳永氏からのブックはすでに本社に送られてきているので、英文タイトルをつけてキャンサー・ソサエティーに送る手筈である。

（なお他にブック寄贈申出があるが、先方の都合をきいてから、寄贈方を願うことになろう）

元の轉住所訪問

西部カナダ旅行記（六）　清水生

グリーンウッドには朝比奈善吉兄が合同教會の主任のように奉仕して居られることは喜ばしい事であり、ミドウエーにはビーシー大学出身の鬼塚清吉君がバウンダリー組村會議員の秘書として重要な地位を占め、この地の日系人間になくてはならぬ人として奉仕して居られる事も嬉しい事であった。「鬼塚さんは私達の村長さんです」と、角野兄が言って居られた。

スロカン一帯

理想的老人村

カズローの一日

ビーシー百年祭

差別的移民法を是正せよ

東洋人系に不公正だとカナダ辯護士會で論難

強く非難

老年恩給増額へ

【キャルガリー發】デイフエンベーカ首相は五日保守黨總會、記者團に「來議會で保守黨政府は老年恩給額の増加を提案するつもりである」と語つた一説には現在の月四十六弗を五十弗又は五十五弗に引上げることになろうといわれている。

廢止すべきだ

クアラルンプールに日本大使館

フルー豫防液

六十万本つくる

フレザー鮭漁

來週高潮

手當をうけ、うち二名がまだ治療をうけている。

日本を支持す

【國連發】米國は日本を安全保障理事會に席を與える運動を有効的に行いつつあるといわれている。九月十七日に國連總會が開かれるがこの總會で重要な十一カ國代表よりなる安保理に日本が加わることは日本の國際的地位を向上させるものとして重大視されており、米國がすでに開始した日本支持の裏面的運動はソ連從屬國を入れようとするソ連と眞つ向に對抗して火花を散らしているとのことであるもし日本が選ばれるとすれば、從前まで東部歐州國が持つていた坐席は向後二年間東洋國が占めることになり、以後はずつと東洋國が永久的に保持しようとみられている。あとの二つの空席はカナダとパナマが選ばれることはたしかである。

晩市航路へ新船

郵船が九月末より協慶丸を

五つ兒生れるか

輕いビール販賣

配給者を起訴

だが實績上らぬ外國品の展示

△トロント共進會は今土曜で閉幕するが、今年出展した外國品は多大の興味をひきはしたが、出品者がネラつているカナダの輸入および卸商者をつかまえることはできなかつたと彼等は語つている。連日、十數万の人々が十二カ國以上の外國ブースをみて廻つたが、ただの見物客ばかりで、カンワンの商賣人はさつぱりというところ

はなし

Travelling Thru Western Canada . . .

By Rev. K. SHIMIZU

Lethbridge, Alta., Aug. 30

[illegible] welcomed at Lethbridge [illegible] Takatas and Sameshimas [illegible] 27, and taken for breakfast to Mr. Tajiri's restaurant.

Alberta is a rich land of natural resources—natural gas, oil, coal and other minerals; wheat, potatoes, carrots, cucumbers and other vegetables.

Even before the war, a few Japanese Canadians crossed over the Rockies and settled in Alberta. Most of them worked on farms around Raymond. During the war, there were almost 4,000 JCs evacuated into Alberta, but now, with the gradual move to other parts of Canada ,only some 2,300 remain. The majority of them are settled in Southern Alberta: Lethbridge, 600; Raymond, 300; Taber, 300; Coaldale, 150; Picture Butte, Iron Springs and Turin areas, 200.

Around Raymond, there are a few JC oldtimers who now manage grand-scale wheat farms. The JCs who settled here during the war now have 100 and 200-acre farms for wheat and vegetables.

KYUSHU FLOOD RELIEF

Members of Toronto's Club Phenix donated a sum of $10 to the Kyushu Flood Relief Fund recently. The collection was made at the Opening Dance Party of the club held Sept. 1.

Personal Notes

Marriages

MURAKAMI-TANABE

Toronto

The marriage of Sumiko Sue Tanabe, youngest daughter of Mrs. Iya Tanabe and the late Danzo Tanabe of Toronto, to Kazumi John Murakami, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waichi Murakami of Hiroshima-ken, Japan, took place on July 20, 1957, at Carlton Street United Church. Rev. J. Findlay officiated.

The bride was attended by Miss Grace Omori, with Linda Koyanagi and Grant Tanabe, niece and nephew of the bride, as flower-girl and page boy. Best man was Tad Miura, and ushers were Gus Kadonaga and George Watanabe.

Reception was held at the House of Fujimatsu.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Junso Funamoto (nee Margaret Miyo Nishihata) of Hamilton, Ont., are happy to announce the birth of their daughter, Jillian Mitsuyo, on Aug. 19, 1957, at St. Joseph's hospital.

14 Japanese Scientists Here for Geophysics Confab

Currently in Toronto attending the International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics are 14 Japanese delegates who are top men in the field.

Along with chief delegate Prof. Chuji Tsuboi, professor of geophysics of the Geophysical Institute, Faculty of Science, Tokyo University, are: Prof. M. Hasegawa of Kyoto University; Dr. Akira Higashi (on leave from Hokkaido U.; c-o Snow, Ice and Permafrost Research Establishment, Wilmette, Illinois); Prof. Koji Hidaka, Tokyo U.; Prof. Yoshio Kato, Tohoku U., Sendai; Prof. Hisashi Kuno, Tokyo U.; Prof. K. Maeda, Kyoto U.; Dr. S. Matsumoto, Meteorological Research Institute, Mabashi, Tokyo; Dr. S. Matsushita, Kyoto U.; Dr. K. Muto, Geographical Survey Institute, Ministry of Construction, Chiba; Dr. T. Obayashi, Radio Research Laboratories, Kokubunji (c-o Dept. of Geophysics, U. of Toronto); Dr. Yasuo Sato, Tokyo U. (Member of Earthquake Research Institute, New York); Dr. Yasuo Shimazu, Nagoya U. (c-o Gravity Division, Dominion Observatory, Ottawa); Prof. R. Takahashi, Tokyo U. (Member of Earthquake Research Institute, UCTA [sic], Calif.). Mrs. Higashi is an associate delegate, and Minoru Ozima, a graduate student of the Geophysics Laboratory of U. of Toronto, is a guest.

The two-week 11th general assembly of the IUGG, opened last Tuesday at Convocation Hall by Prime Minister Diefenbaker, is being attended by 700 scientists from 50 nations.

Meetings at Hart House in the U. of Toronto will be concerned with everything from the contours of hills to the frontiers of space. The meeting is a highlight of the International Geophysical Year which began in July and lasts for 18 months, so that all seasons of both Poles and the world in between can be encompassed.

There are no political, ideological or other barriers among the delegates. There are 50 from Russia attending the assembly which closes on Sept. 14.

ASIAN IMMIGRATION

"The administration of the act has been carried on in an atmosphere of secrecy," Mr. Taylor said. "The whole procedure would be revolutionized if special boards which would make public their decisions were set up to hear immigration applications."

He also said personal appeals to ministers and MP's about immigrants must be abolished. "Too often these applications are unfairly disposed of after furtive and injudicious hearings," he added.

Judge P. E. Gariepy of Edmonton said he hoped the Conservative Government in Ottawa would act as a new broom and sweep out inefficient and bureaucratic civil servants like the ones complained of by Mr. Davidson.

others are carpenters, painters, mechanics, or doctors, dentists, chiropractors, teachers, and many other professions.

As in all farming districts, there is always the problem of keeping the young men on the farms. Those who have higher education almost always settle in the towns and cities. This situation causes some worry among the JC farmers here as to the future of their property. Some say that these farms will not last long if no new immigrants are allowed to come from Japan. . .

LAND OF THE RELIGIOUS

Alberta has brought up many religious people. The founder of the Social Credit movement was an Alberta man who believed and preached that the Bible was the centre of his political philosophy. Within a quarter of a century, both Alberta and B.C. came under the Social Credit government. The progress of the party can be seen in the improvement of the roads. . . . No one can ignore this fact, and it remains a source of amazement to the other political parties.

Among the Alberta Japanese Canadians, too, are many religious people. In the United Church alone, Alberta has fostered Rev. G. Oshiro and Rev. M. Takata, and now the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Maruyama is studying at a theological school. And besides the Japanese United, Anglican and Buddhist Churches, there are many more JCs belonging to other religious sects.

(Incidentally, Rev. Y. Ogura of the Alberta Japanese United Church, who has suffered heart trouble since April, is almost fully recovered.)

In spite of it being the most busy time of the year with harvesting, 68 people attended a meeting on Wednesday evening.

Chapter V: EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Nisei Parents, Like Issei, Want Best of Education for Kids

By BETTY WANGENHEIM

(Ed's Note: The second part of the chapter on Educational Institutions from Mrs. Wangenheim's thesis, The Social Organization of the Japanese Community in Toronto.)

IN the post war Toronto community, general education has on the whole still retained its positive value. Nisei parents are just as concerned as are the Issei that their children shall have the best education possible and most of the students continue to show a conscientious application to their studies.

Even though the community bonds have considerably loosened, there is a continuance of extreme pride in the academic and professional successes of the students. It is a source of great general pride that such a large proportion of Nisei and even some Sansei are attending university. The value of providing scholarships for worthy students is still recognized, even though this attitude is not now so often translated into action.

There is, among university students, a general concentration in the faculties leading to practical careers: law, medicine, pure and applied science, with a certain number in the social sciences and social work. Even those who do take a general arts course usually intend it as a background to teaching.

LACK OF INTEREST IN THE HUMANITIES

There is a general lack of interest in the humanities. This can in part be explained by the Nisei's conforming to the general anti-intellectual bias of our times; however, part of it must attributed to a basic insecurity in using the tools of written communication.

There was some awareness of this difficulty before the war. In 1940, the writer of a New Canadian column, "Deborah and I" deplored the number of "simple mistakes in English that appear so often even in the literary contributions to the paper. So many young Nisei with creative talent are brought up in a semi-English semi-Japanese environment. As a result, they are genuinely and instinctively at home with neither English nor Japanese."

The younger Nisei, whose elementary education was gained in the relocation centres in an all-Japanese environment under make-shift conditions with willing but only half-trained teachers, were thereby placed under a further handicap which many of them have still not completely overcome. As there is now usually little sign of this to be detected in their spoken English, teachers are often bewildered by grammatical mistakes and confused phraseology in their essays.

This insecurity leads most Nisei to avoid those fields in which a good command of English is a necessity. And, as one Nisei wrote, ". . . in throwing English out of the windows, they threw away their interest in philosophy, history, literature and the arts. . ."

OVERPROTECTIVE NISEI PARENTS CAUSE UNCERTAINTY...

Among the older Nisei, there is a certain envy of the younger Nisei and Sansei who are passing their adolescence under much more congenial conditions than did the older Nisei and "will be able to train for and get any job they want."

Some of the younger group, however, still display some uncertainty and timidity in relation to choosing a vocation. This can be partly traced to an overprotective attitude of their parents who cannot forget their own bad experiences.

"I thought I'd like to train to be a nurse, but my mother (a Nisei from Northern B.C.) told me no hospital would take me. My sister said she would like to be a teacher but mother is convinced no Japanese would be allowed to teach."

This illustrates a break-down of communication within the ethnic group, for several Nisei have been teaching successfully in Ontario schools for the last eight or nine years, and the number of Nisei nurses is increasing each year.

While the stress of higher educational training is producing a large proportion of professional workers, there are others who place more value on technical training. For example, in 1955, Ryerson Institute of Technology graduated six electronic technicians and one fashion designer.

There is a good deal of latent hostility towards university students. One letter to the editor, commenting on lack of audience at a vocational guidance panel sponsored by the Japanese Canadian Citizens Association stated that the four professions represented, designing, journalism, teaching and psychology, are not of interest to most Nisei.

"Why? It is easier and more lucrative to be a plumber than a psychologist. So why knock oneself out? What is a degree but 'a piece of rabbit fur'. . . ."

NISEI PARENTS IGNORE JAPANESE LANGUAGE LESSONS...

While the attitude towards the practical value of education remains, the situation in regard to the dissemination of Japanese culture has changed radically. The Issei have in general given up the attempt to force their children to take lessons in Japanese. Most Nisei parents are indifferent to or very much against the idea.

Those who have Issei in the home sometimes think it would be a nice thing for their children to be able to talk more to the grandparents, ". . . but as for going to school and learning to read and write—why it's no use to them . . . and it's bad for their eyes. I can see now that there might have been some sense in the old days when we couldn't get good jobs in B.C. and a knowledge of Japanese might have been a help in the import business, but now. . . .!"

Some young adult Nisei show an equivocal attitude towards the question of language training for their hypothetical children. "Well, we might if there was a school, but there isn't one"—as if this settled the matter. There are no signs that the great majority of the Nisei feel any responsibility for collectively using their money to organize and maintain Japanese language schools as their parents did.
